

NDB HR Signs MoU with WNPS to Create Awareness in Environmental Conservation

CAPTION: [From L to R] Mr. Jehan CanagaRatna, Committee Member and Mr. Ranil Peiris, Vice President WNPS, Director/CEO of NDB Mr. Dimantha Seneviratne, VP Human Resources Mr. C. Hewapattini, VP Marketing and Customer Experience Mr. Sanjaya Senarat, Senior Manager Human Resources Lilanthi Delgoda

NDB's Human Resources Department recently signed a Memorandum of Understanding with the Wildlife and Nature Protection Society of Sri Lanka (WNPS) to create awareness on environmental conservation in Sri Lanka among the Bank's Staff and family members.

While ensuring that corporate sustenance is vital, NDB simultaneously places importance on developing our society through many of the Bank's flagship sustainability initiatives. NDB Bank has partnered many success stories of Sri Lanka and firmly believes that an environmentally responsible culture is essential for the development of a nation. With this in mind, the Bank's Human Resources Department has arranged to conduct training and awareness sessions to educate its valuable staff and their family members on matters concerning the environment.

Guest Lectures organized by WNPS will be conducted for the Bank's staff and families in order to achieve this goal. NDB is a customer centric organization and the Bank's product development revolves around the customers' wants and needs. The Bank strives to provide its customers the most convenient and the most relevant product. As a result the Bank has developed innovative products and services where its customers are provided with personalized value, with minimal impact on the environment.

NDB remains dedicated to bringing its customers one step closer to accomplishing their life long ambitions and uplifting their standards of living through the range of services that is accessible through its growing branch network. Further details on how to download the NDB mobile app and the bank's many other products can be obtained from its 24 hour Call Centre, by calling 011 2448888, or by visiting the nearest NDB Branch.
