

NDB Good Life Credit Cards finance for Higher Education of Students

Education has been a challenge in the past mainly due to the high costs on the university and institute fees where the students have to pay upfront to commence their studies. In order to lessen this burden, the Bank has designed an attractive product to facilitate the students on their Higher Education.

Accordingly, with NDB Good Life Credit Cards, the student has the flexibility of making the payment direct to the institute and settling the bank on installment plans extending up to 60 months.

The Bank has partnered with institutes such as Institute of Bankers of Sri Lanka (IBSL) where the student wishes to continue studies on banking. The course fee can be settled by the student at IBSL within 06 months on 0% installment plan basis.

Further, bank has partnered with institutes such as American National College (ANC), Asia Pacific Institute of Information Technology (APIIT), National Institute of Business Management (NIBM) , Management and Science University of Malaysia (MSU) , METRIX Institute and Imperial Institute of Higher Education (IIHE) where the student enjoy the installment plan scheme with 0.9% interest paid on monthly basis up to 60 months. The bank is open to partner with other education institutes as well to extend the higher education facilities island wide.

The Student has the flexibility of applying for any undergraduate or postgraduate program offered by any of the stated educational institutes. They could concentrate their studies even up to PhD programs offered at the respective institutes.

NDB GoodLife Credit Card Education scheme is easy to apply as the student has to submit only the letter of acceptance to the university and providing the bank with the documents required for obtaining a NDB GoodLife Credit Card. The uniqueness in this facility will be that in the event the student is not employed the parent of the student can facilitate the education by becoming the main applicant for the facility. The education facility comes with no guarantors and granted in few days.

If the student requires for early settlement of the facility, the Student has the option of settling by paying the full course fee without paying any additional chargers to the bank. The Student could contact the bank representatives for any further assistance and guidance.
